

The Glass Association

European 20th Century Glass

At the Manchester City Art Gallery
Saturday 27th and Sunday 28th October 2007 & the AGM of The Glass Association

BOOKING FORM

Saturday 27th October 2007

Thimo de Duits; An art historian, formerly of the National Glass Museum in Leerdam, now curator of the Boijmans Van Beuningen Museum in Rotterdam, will talk on "Leerdam Glass 1925 -1932; 'a thing of beauty is a joy forever'".

Sylva Petrova; A major authority on Czech glass; author, lecturer and curator over the last twenty five years. Was in charge of the Czech Glass presentation at Expo 2005 in Japan. Her talk is entitled "Czech and Slovak Glass; integration into other cultural contexts".

On Sunday 28th October 2007

Gunnel Holmer; the well known curator of the Smalands museum in Vaxjo, Sweden, since 1978. A specialist researcher and writer on 19th & 20th century Swedish glassmaking. Her topic is simply "Swedish Glass".

Rosa Barovier Mentasi: of the renowned Renaissance glassblowing family, course organizer at the Scuola del Vetro Abate Zanetti in Murano – author of works on Venini, Seguso and Fuga, a reference book on the history of glass and a specialist work on Murano, will speak on "Venetian Glass"

During the seminar, The Glass Association will be running a "Silent Auction" of glass from the collections of the members; sale items will be on display in the lecture theatre from the start of the seminar until Sunday lunchtime, written bids can be entered at any time during that day and a half. The Glass Association's AGM will be held on Saturday afternoon, after the speakers presentations. There is a dinner arranged on the Saturday evening, which all four speakers will attend.

Everyone is invited to attend and enjoy this special evening. The cost for dinner will be £25.

COST:	Both days of the seminar:	GA members £58 / Non GA members £78 *
	Saturday (lunch included):	GA members £34 / Non GA members £54 *
	Sunday :	GA members £24 / Non GA members £44 *
	STUDENT DISCOUNT	£10 both days, £5 Sat or Sun

(* includes a years free membership of The Glass Association)

I/We wish to bookplaces on the European 20th Century Glass

Name.....

Address.....
.....
.....

Tel No:..... E-mail:.....

Both Days Saturday only Sunday only Saturday Dinner Event

Amount enclosed.....Please make cheque payable to 'The Glass Association'

Post to: Gaby Marcon, The Glass Association, 7 The Avenue, Finchley, London N3 2LB